Communicating Among Generations

Thursday, June 5, 2014

11:30 AM - 1:30 PM

Law School Partrich Auditorium

World-renowned Lance Richards of Kelly Services will explore ways of communicating, motivating and creating a workplace that brings out the best in each of the various generations in the workplace today. Exciting topics of this session will include:

- How generations of skilled and knowledge workers collaborate to realize that a shared vision drives ground-breaking innovation and productivity.
- How this workforce aims to accumulate results, rather than hours at a desk.
- Personal connections: This upbeat, eclectic bunch of workers forges bonds via instant messaging and social media, and a shared passion for their work.
- Motivations: Change is exciting; it is embraced and sought out, not avoided.

Education is ingrained in the culture, but not in the traditional sense or structures. Here, everyone learns. And everyone teaches.
